

ORDINANCE CHANGING DEER SEASONS IN NEVADA COUNTY.

The Board of County Commissioners of Nevada County do ordain as follows:

Section 1. The open season for deer and antelope in the County of Nevada shall be from Sept. 1st to Oct. 15th and an additional period of one month, or until the 15th of each and every year.

It shall be unlawful in the County of Nevada for any person to hunt or trap any deer or antelope after the 15th day of October and before the 15th day of November, or to kill trap, lather or snare any deer with an attempt to catch, injure or destroy any deer.

Section 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $50.00 and not more than $100.00 for each such fine and imprisoned.

Section 3. The Board of County Commissioners of the different counties of Nevada shall fix a season within the period between November 15 to December 15, during which time no deer or antelope, relating to the open season, is hereby closed to all hunting.

NOTE TO NORTH DIVIDE STOCKHOLDERS

Divide Extension Mining Company has been given the Interim Mining Claim for the North Divide Mining Company by the State Land Commission, thereby enabling the North Divide stockholders to receive certificates of ownership in the company.

There were three famous Edwins, one the wife of Orlando the Philistine; one a queen of Italy 920; and another lady of the house of Este in 1293.

The masculine forms, Edwin, Edward, Edmon and Edmond, were flourishing in England, especially among royalty, and the name of Edward, the greatest of the Plantagenets, was carried by his granddaughter to Portugal where it became well suptained by her husband.

Edwin's talismanic gem is rightfully then the royal robe which gives power and courage and invincibility to its bearer. It is the king of gems and one who wears it is assured kindly qualities, as the old legend goes. Monday is Edwin's lucky day, 2 her lucky number, and the poppy is her flower.

"A new reformer has come to town."

"What's he up to?" asked the ill-

-looking citizen.

"How glad to start a crusade against home brew parties."

"Well, if hell just get to punch a few people in the nose, after they've attended a 'home brew' party he'll make some converts. It's bad my experience, that they'll save any thing, then—"Bumfumfum. Are-Ho-

YESTERDAY.

NOW where you are, Ye

King of all creatures gay,

How your heart doth leap for joy.

With song and jester's glee,

Ye Queen of all life's show,

And mirth of all mirths to be.

At ease and carefree, like

One's day my soul can never forget,

Even in the moments of regret.

Tomorrow may be full of lures,

But be it safe in suspense,

The joys of Yesterdays are sure
